

Then God created people, both large and both small,
It was clear to see that God was the king over all.